A CABINET OF CURIOSITIES.

At the New York Academy of Sciences, Dec. 12, 1862.

To D. J. MAGOWAN, M. D.—Dear Sir: Favored as you have been by your 21 years of residence and travel chiefly in the East, you have become familiar with the Eastern world and are able to communicate what will be universally interesting and instructive to our countrymen.

The use of opium, tea, coffee, &c., &c., &c., &c., &c., &c., and the like, in the East, is a subject of much interest.

One of the best lectures on the subject is delivered by Dr. J. M. Smith, Professor of the College of Pharmacy of Columbia University, at 140 West 14th Street, New York.
